Description

The determination arises from the decision of the authority to refuse to issue a building consent for the installation of a polyethylene surface water sump and its associated drainage.

The matters for determination, in terms of sections 177(a) and 177(b)(i), are:

- whether the surface water sump at this particular location complies with Clauses E1 Surface water, and B1 Structure of the Building Code;
- whether the surface water sump complies with Clauses B2 Durability, and F2 Hazardous building materials of the Building Code;
- whether the decision of the authority to refuse to issue a building consent was correct.
