Description

The dispute between the parties related to the authority's decisions to issue a notice to fix for the site works.

The reason given by the authority for this decision was because a sunken garden, which formed part of the landscaping for the site works, did not comply with the requirements of Clause D1 of the Building Code.

The matters for determination were whether the sunken garden complied with Clause D1 and whether the authority was correct to issue a notice to fix for the building work.
