Description

This determination arises from the decision of the authority to issue a code compliance certificate for the pre-school play centre. The matters to be determined are: whether the authority correctly exercised its powers when it issued the code compliance certificate; and whether, at the time the authority issued the code compliance certificate, the elements that make up the building work complied with Clauses B1 Structure, B2 Durability and E2 External moisture of the Building Code that was current at the time that the building consent was issued.
