Description

The authority's exercise of powers in refusing an application for a certificate of acceptance for retrofitting foam wall insulation in a house at 24 Braithwaite Street, Karori, Wellington

Scope

The determination arose from a decision made by the authority to refuse to accept an application for a certificate of acceptance for building work that consisted of retrofitting urea formaldehyde foam insulation in the external walls of the applicant's house.

The matter to be determined was whether the authority correctly exercised its powers of decision in refusing to accept an application for a certificate of acceptance for the building work.
