

- Home Home
- About this portal
- Latest updates

Save

Resource detail
Citations

SSPC-SP 1:2015 Solvent Cleaning

View on Information Provider website

Abbreviation

SSPC-SP 1:2015

Valid from

23/04/2015

---

Information provider

SAI Global

Author

The Society for Protective Coatings (SSPC)

Information type

Other Standard

Format

PDF, Hard copy

---

Cited By

This resource is cited by 1 document \(show Citations\)

---

Description

This standard defines the end-condition of a metal surface from which visible deposits of oil, grease, and other visible contaminants have been removed in preparation for subsequent application of protective coatings or for the use of additional methods to prepare the surface for the application of coatings.

The standard also includes requirements for materials and procedures necessary to achieve and verify the end condition.

For assistance with locating previous versions, please contact the information provider.

View on Information Provider website

For assistance with locating previous versions, please contact the information provider.

This resource is cited by:

SSPC-SP 1:2015 Solvent Cleaning

This document is CITED BY:

- AS/NZS 5131:2016

SSPC-SP 1:2015 is cited by AS/NZS 5131:2016 Structural steelwork - Fabrication and erection

Back

SSPC-SP 1:2015 Solvent Cleaning

Show what documents this resource is CITED BY

Show what documents this resource CITES

Description

This standard defines the end-condition of a metal surface from which visible deposits of oil, grease, and other visible contaminants have been removed in preparation for subsequent application of protective coatings or for the use of additional methods to prepare the surface for the application of coatings.

The standard also includes requirements for materials and procedures necessary to achieve and verify the end condition.

View on Information Provider website

SSPC-SP 1:2015 Solvent Cleaning

Description

This standard defines the end-condition of a metal surface from which visible deposits of oil, grease, and other visible contaminants have been removed in preparation for subsequent application of protective coatings or for the use of additional methods to prepare the surface for the application of coatings.

The standard also includes requirements for materials and procedures necessary to achieve and verify the end condition.

View on Information Provider website

This resource does not cite any other resources.

SSPC-SP 1:2015 Solvent Cleaning

This resource does not CITE any other resources.

Back

Close

Table of Contents

Print Save Email

Feedback

<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>

- Contact us
- Privacy policy
- Disclaimer
- Copyright

<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>

Feedback